2017-2018
Prospectus

Honilands College

Welcome to Honilands College! This is one of the most exciting developments in our curriculum because it allows you to select your own learning opportunities, through a series of courses that will run every Wednesday afternoon. We have incorporated our Learning to Learn Skills within each of the courses. Look out for Reflective, Relationships, Resilience, Resourceful, Risk Taking and Responsibility. Children will develop these skills in each of the courses. You never know, you may find skills that you never knew you had!

During the academic year, you will study 6 courses. Courses will be run for five or six weeks and at the end of each course you will be accredited against a series of pre planned skills that you will be able to use in your future learning.

Over the course of the year you will develop a portfolio of skills in areas that you are interested in. You will keep a record of the courses that you have attended through the certificates that you will receive on completion of each course if you have met the pre-planned skills. There are 3 levels of certificate which you could receive:

Pass: You have successfully met some of the skills.

Merit: You have successfully met the majority of the skills.

Distinction: You have successfully and consistently met all skills.

The courses at Honilands College have been divided into these 5 faculties:

Global Issues	Personal Wellbeing	Science and Technology	Media and Communication	Creative Arts
Courses	Courses	Courses	Courses	Courses

This prospectus contains all the courses available in each faculty. You will find a brief description of each course, as well as the skills that you will have the opportunity to develop by attending. Take time to read each course and think to yourself 'would I like the opportunity to learn that'? Once you have read the prospectus, follow the instructions on the back pages about what to do next.
